Elnora P. Hamb

9th President of the Women’s Missionary Council
Christian Methodist Episcopal Church
Rejoice!

Greetings to Senior Bishop William H. Graves Sr., Patron Bishop Lawrence Reddick, III, Associate Bishop Kenneth W. Carter, Host Bishop Thomas L. Brown Sr., and Dr. Louise Brown, , Bishop Ronald M. Cunningham, Chairman of the College of Bishops, other distinguished members of the College of Bishops, their wives and widows, Council Officers, Immediate Past President Dr. Judith E. Grant, Dr. Sylvia M. Faulk, President Emeritus, Executive Board Members, General Officers, Judicial Council, Connectional Officers, Clergy, Missionaries, Laity and Ecumenical guest.

Rejoice in the Lord Always and again I say rejoice! It is with great joy and thanksgiving that I greet you and express my profound gratitude for the opportunity to serve as the Ninth President of the Women’s Missionary Council of the Christian Methodist Church and to make my fifth Executive Board Report.

We owe a debt of gratitude to those who have labored untiring to maintain and participate in the ongoing work of the Council. This report reveals how each region president, department secretary, chairperson and correspondent has met the challenges of its time in uniquely innovated ways. Thanks to the college of Bishops, General Officers, Council Officers and Missionaries on all levels for your commitment to excellence and cooperation. Special thanks to Bishop Lawrence L. Reddick, III our Episcopal Patron for his sound wisdom, support and a listening ear when I so desperately needed one.

My reflections of 2008 include many history – making events that are most memorable:

WMC 90th Celebration
The celebration of the 90th Anniversary of the Women’s Missionary Council. The Women’s Missionary Council celebrated 90 years of service to the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, started in Nashville, Tennessee, September 3, 1918 continues the legacy of inspiring and equipping our members to participate and work collaboratively with other women’s organizations and groups, to participate in advocacy for justice, peace, human rights, the oppressed and voiceless, women, children and the elderly. In this time of global change and national crises, the Women’s Missionary Council is again called to be the one clear and relevant voice for change; We are challenged as never before to speak for those who have no voice and to be the light of hope where there is darkness.

I thank you for the many invitations to speak at local churches, district workshops, retreats and region conferences, which were all memorable occasions and gave me an opportunity to see you, the missionaries in action.

CELEBRATION, 129TH HOME CHURCH ANNIVERSARY
To be invited to speak at the 129th Church Anniversary at the Greater Mount Zion Christian Methodist Episcopal Church in Orysa, Tennessee (Henning, TN) Sunday, April 20, 2008, was special because it was my home church of birth. A prophet has no honor in its hometown did not prove true on this occasion, I was honored and appreciated. A memorial plaque hangs in the church that reads “The home church of the Ninth President the Women’s Missionary Council Dr. Elnora P. Hamb”. It was truly a celebration in which the entire Missionary department of the First Episcopal District was present: Region presidents: Sandra Jones-West TN, Pamela Springfield- East TN and Arkansas Nita Threadgill. Reverend Deborah Washington, Pastor, Reverend Bethel L. Harris, Jr. Presiding Elder and Senior Bishop William H. Graves, Presiding Prelate.
ELECTION OF 1ST AFRICAN-AMERICAN PRESIDENT

The election of President Barack Obama, the first African – American President to the United States of America. Many thought or said electing an African-American as president could never happen and, certainly could not in their lifetime. However I maintained that if we support and vote for him he could win. What a mighty God we serve. “To confront the serious economic challenges our nation faces, I called for a new era of responsibility and cooperation. We need to look beyond short term political calculations and make vital investments in health care, energy, and education that will make America stronger and more prosperous well into the future.” (President Barack Obama). These are also some of the Missionary Women objectives - Healthcare and Education. As the light of the world, let's give our support to this New Era of Change - A Light of Hope in a Troubled World.

“I called for a new era of responsibility and cooperation.”

COMPLETION OF PHASE I

Finally, the completion of Phase I - the construction of the first story of the Women’s Missionary Council Elnora P. Hamb Library and Conference Center in Ikot Epene, Nigeria, the first of its kind. You have adopted the HOPE NETWORK Project as a means to furthering our mission to meet the needs of an expanding global and diverse world. You are to be commended for your benevolent spirit.

All of these great achievements remind us that God is ready to do a new thing. Isaiah 43:18, 19 says “Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert”. Here God was speaking to the exiles of Israel in Babylon a people who had convinced themselves that their future was uncertain. The only thing they seemed to remember were the formal years when Israel was the envy of all nations. They could not see” a new thing” breaking forth.

To dwell on the hardships of days gone by is pointless. To cherish the record of what God did in the past to overcome those hardships is valuable, but is not a stopping point. What’s most important is the new things that God is doing and will be doing before your very eyes. God’s desire is that we be made new, continual renewed, in our relationship with him. How will the knowledge of God’s continuing work of renewal in your life cause you to face life differently this year?

Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; ...
God of our weary years, God of our silent tears,
Thou who hast brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who has by thy might
Led us into the light, Keep us forever in thy path, we pray
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest, our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
True to our God,
True to our native land.
James Weldon Johnson: “Lift Every Voice and sing”
(Third stanza)

The poem was later set to music by Mr. Johnson’s brother in 1905. This song soon became a way for African Americans to demonstrate their patriotism and hope for the future. In calling for earth and heaven to “ring with the harmonies of Liberty”, We could speak out subtly against racism and Jim Crow laws and especially the huge number of lynching’s accompanying the rise of the Ku Klux Klan at the turn of the century. On January 20, 2009, the Rev. Joseph Lowery (former president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) used a near-verbatim recitation of the song’s third stanza to begin his benediction at the inauguration ceremony for President Barack Obama. “God of our weary years, God of our silent tears, thou who hast brought us thus far on the way”. Through His beloved Son, the future for African Americans and all races is now bright and hopeful. I challenge you to reflect on our journey to freedom and the new thing” that is springing forth through God’s power. May you continue to have hope and a stronger faith in God as your source of strength. Yes We Can!

We live in hope. “I have it all planned out – plans to take care of you, not abandon you, plans to give you the future you hope for.” (Jeremiah 29:11: the Message Bible). Hope acts on the conviction that God will complete the work he has begun even when the appearances, especially when the appearances, oppose it. Every person we meet must be drawn into that expectation. Every situation in which we find ourselves must be included in the kingdom that we are convinced God is bringing into being. Hope is buying into what we believe...It is of course, far easier to languish in despair than to live in hope, for when we live in despair we don’t have to do anything or risk anything. If we live in hope, we will go against the stream. There is no secret, what God can do, what He has done for others he’ll do for you. Keep the faith. And your faith will keep you.

Region Conferences
You are the link that connects us to the local and district conferences and we are pleased in the many and varied ministries that you have been involved in this year. (See the Compilation Book). For this we say thank you.

Even though our work is incomplete it challenges us to stretch ourselves, and to reach just a little higher which opens up opportunities for the Lord’s Grace to enter and do the rest. It is my desire that those who read this report will be motivated and inspired by it, that they will be called, committed and compelled to serve.

“We accomplish in our lifetime only a tiny fraction of the magnificent enterprise that is God’s work...nothing we do is complete...no statement says all that could be said...no program accomplishes the church mission.”

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Women’s Missionary Council through the Overseas Mission Department adopt a program to assist in rehabilitation of the Pauline B. Grant School in Accra, Ghana, the Elnora P. Hamb Nursery and Primary School in Kano, Nigeria and the Norma Jean Cummings school in Nigeria.
   - Purchase treated bed nets to help prevent malaria.
   - Purchase and install a pump for a village water system.
   - Gifts of the heart kits: health kits, schools kits and baby kits.
   - Purchase Bicycles for transportation.
   - Complete Phase II of the Building a Library in Nigeria and equip it with furniture and books, etc.

2. That the Women’s Missionary Council continues paying the teachers salaries for the Joseph C. Coles and the Mae C. Lindsey Schools in Jamaica.

3. That we support the “Sister to Sister Legacy Luncheon” as a means of funding our Health Initiative and encouraging membership growth.

4. That we continue and strengthen the on going projects of the Council: Helena B. Cobb Scholarship, Save Our Sons Scholarship, Overseas Mission, Hunger and Meals for Millions, H.O.P.E. Network, and World Federation of Methodist & Uniting Church Women.

5. That each Missionary on all levels pledge and pay $25.00 for the Development Fund

6. That each Missionary would solicit members for the Eula W. Harris Life Membership Department.

7. That we giving a standing ovation to Bishop Kenneth Carter for serving as the Associate Bishop for this Executive Board Meeting.

8. That we extend thanks to Bishop Thomas L. Brown Sr., Dr. Louise Brown and the entire Fourth Episcopal District for the hospitality shown to the 2009 Executive Board and all those in attendance.
